Following our previous seminar held on March 12 based on the amended Cabinet Orders and rules and regulations, this Part 3 seminar will pick up the 2020 Amended Act on the Protection of Personal Information which was enacted on June 5, 2020 and promulgated on June 12, 2020. The seminar will have a Q&A session and will cover the Guideline corresponding to the 2020 Amended Act (General Rules, Provision to Overseas Third Parties, Mandatory Checks and Recording Upon Provision to Third Parties, Anonymized Information) and other items (which will include the updated Q&A if it is disclosed at the time of the seminar) by placing focus on key points for practical affairs. This seminar will help you effectively understand the amendments and prepare to respond to the 2020 Amended Act with confidence.

As for the Amendment to the Act on the Protection of Personal Information (the 2021 Amendment (excluding parts related to local governments and local incorporated administrative agencies)) by the Bill on the Arrangement of Related Laws for the Formation of a Digital Society that is scheduled to be enforced in the spring of 2022, we assume especially those of you working for incorporated administrative agencies and other entities in the medical and academic fields (for example the National Hospital Organization, National University Corporations, National Research and Development Agencies, etc.) and those of you in private sectors who have business interactions with such incorporated administrative agencies feel the need to understand the content. In this seminar, we will take one step further from the overview of the 2021 Amendment explained in our Part 2 seminar and will dive into the details of the amendment by profiting from a Q&A style session. The seminar will also cover the parts related to local governments and local incorporated administrative agencies in the 2021 Amendment that are scheduled to be enforced in the spring of 2023.

This seminar will be a valuable opportunity to sum up your knowledge on how to respond to the 2020 Amendment and to learn the details of the 2021 Amendment. We look forward to your participation.
